

Age Eligibility Rules for National Aged Club Championships and NWPL

1. The Water Polo Australia policy with regards to national age group championship is as follows:

Players must be born within the three-year period to participate in a national aged club championship.

The age groups for the 2017 National Aged Club Championships are as follows:

- 18U – born 1999, 2000 and 2001
- 16U – born 2001, 2002 and 2003
- 14U – born 2003, 2004 and 2005
- 12U – born 2005, 2006 and 2007

2. The Water Polo Australia policy with regards to NWPL is as follows:

Players must have turned at least 16 years of age in the year of competition to participate in a NWPL match (e.g. born 2001 or earlier for the 2017 season). Outstanding talent under 16 years of age may apply to WPA for an exemption but this will only be granted in exceptional circumstances and with the agreement of the National Coach and relevant Institute coach.
